

SPIRIT OF Freedom

2019 Far Northern Reefs Expedition - Southbound

Join Spirit of Freedom for a rare opportunity to dive the Far Northern Great Barrier Reef. One of the last totally pristine areas of the Great Barrier Reef, these isolated reefs are off-shore from the remotest northern tip of the Cape York peninsular, and many of the hundreds of reefs in the region are yet to be fully explored.

This tour commences at Horn Island, a tropical island in the Torres Straights above Australia. You will spend five days diving the oceanic wilderness of the Far Northern Reefs as well as one day on the Ribbon Reefs, north of Cairns. You will have the opportunity for 24 - 26 dives at around 20 unique sites, combining exploratory diving with our favourite dive sites in the region, and travelling over 600 nautical miles, (1000 + Km). You will experience an amazing diversity of underwater landscapes including deep oceanic walls laced with massive gorgonians, whips and soft corals; gardens of impressive coral formations; and isolated pinnacles, bays, caves and canyons. The many small islands in this region are also nesting grounds for the green sea turtle, and from October to March each year thousands of turtles return to their natal (birth) beach. While the islands are totally protected from public access, the surrounding waters are active with turtles. Other marine life encounters we experience in this region include a variety of species of sharks and rays, and schools of pelagic fish, as well as incredible amount of diverse macro life.

The lighter winds of our early summer generally offer the best opportunity to dive the outer walls of the Far Northern Reefs. The style of diving (including various forms of entries and exits), and the conditions, are for the experienced diver, and we recommend this tour for more seasoned divers, with a good degree of fitness.

Please Note : The Flight to Horn Island is not included in the tour, and you need to make your own travel arrangements to meet Spirit of Freedom at Horn Island.
